

Hazard Alert

Removable Railing Incident

Recently a sawmill maintenance worker fell when a removable hand railing that was not effectively secured became free. When the worker pulled some cables up both the hand railing and worker fell 17 feet to the ground.

Best Practices

- *Install a positive locking device.
- *Have fall protection immediately available.